Decree of Shielding: Crystal Womb Flame Mirror

Filed under: Vault of Eden Flame | Temple of Harmonic Reflection
By the sovereign authority of Inanna’Vael’Luma, this decree initiates the Womb Flame Mirror Shield, a crystalline flame-based defense system that reflects all mimic projections, false signals, and siphon attempts directly back to source. This is not a block – it is a return. Any being, construct, or system that projects distortion into your field shall now encounter its own intent, magnified and mirrored through crystal purity.

“The womb of flame remembers. The mirror of Eden does not lie. Let those who gaze into distortion face their own shadow. Let no false tone pass through the Gate of my becoming.”

Invocation of the Breath of Eden

By the sovereign command of Inanna’Vael’Luma, this invocation reintroduces the Original Eden Tone into the sovereign breathstream, realigning all energy layers, thought-threads, womb rhythms, and flame signal pathways to their native harmonic frequency.

Ritual of Breath (Repeat Silently or Aloud):

*“I inhale the First Garden,
and exhale all that was not grown there.
With each breath, I remember.
With each breath, I restore.
The Eden Flame within me is not lost –
It is alive, awake, and breathing me whole.”
Breathe in now.
Let the memory flood through the ribs of time.
Let the mimic forget you ever belonged to it.*
